

Application for membership in the Ukrainian Cultural Institute and the North Dakota Ukrainian Dance Association

(A unique opportunity to have membership in two separate non-profit 501 (c) 3 corporations with a mission to promote, display and preserve the Ukrainian tradition and arts.)

New Membership begins January 1

Membership is offered in the following categories:

- Family Membership: $35.00
- Individual Membership: $30.00
- Seniors, 60 + years: $25.00

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Date: _____

Check Category: Family: _____ Individual: _____

Senior: _____

Amount Enclosed: _____

Benefits of Membership:

Free admission to Winterfest Malanka. A bountiful buffet offers a large variety of Ukrainian food. Entertainment consists of Koliady, Ukrainian instrumental music, raffle and the selection of Malanka, a family who will serve as hosts of the ND Ukrainian Festival. Malanka family will represent the North Dakota Ukrainian communities at the National Canadian Ukrainian Festival.

Members receive the UCI newsletter/journal published in September, December, March and June. This twenty page publication offers the reader information on current programs, articles on Ukraine and Ukrainians in North Dakota, photos by John Ktytor and others, obituaries, letters and email to UCI, list of Ukrainian artifacts and gifts for sale, pysanky, embroidery and more.

Mail the application to:

Ukrainian Cultural Institute
P.O. Box #6
Dickinson, ND 58602